

This document explains what the Hull Training and Adult Education does with the personal information you provide us.

General

From time to time you will be asked to tell us personal information about yourself in order to become a learner or a client, to use our systems and services and so on. (See Appendix A for more details) At the point of collecting the information we aim to clearly explain what it is going to be used for and who we may share it with. Unless required or permitted by law, we will always ask you before we use it for any other reason. We would only use it for marketing with your prior consent.

Any sensitive personal information will never be supplied to anyone outside Hull Training and Adult Education without first obtaining your consent, unless required or permitted by law. We comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), including removing your personal information from our systems when it is no longer required and ensuring that all personal information supplied is held securely.

Whenever you provide such personal information, we will treat that information in accordance with this statement and current legislation. We also aim to meet current best practice.

Individuals whose personal information Hull Training and Adult Education holds have certain rights under the law. More information can be found on the Information Commissioner's website. This can be found at www.ico.org.uk or by calling 0303 1231113 (charged at local rate).

Enrolment

This section explains how Hull Training and Adult Education uses the personal information that you give us on the enrolment form.

How Hull Training and Adult Education uses your information

The information will be used for purposes relating to education, training, employment, general advice services, well-being and research. Hull Training and Adult Education may share non-sensitive personal information about you with other organisations, for example the Local Authority (see below), for these purposes. We do not share your information for purposes that are incompatible, such as product marketing.

Sensitive personal information you provide (eg. disability or ethnicity) may be used by Hull Training and Adult Education for the purposes of equality of opportunity, support for your studies and to minimise risk. It may also be used anonymously for statistical purposes. We will ask your permission before sharing sensitive information with other organisations, unless the sharing is permitted by law and necessary.

How government departments use your information

We pass most of the information to government agencies to meet funding arrangements. Hull Training and Adult Education is a Data Processor for the Education and Skills Funding Agency. This means that we will pass most of the personal information and some of the sensitive information you provide to the Education and Skills Funding Agency. Where necessary it is also shared with the Department for Education (DfE). This can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

The information is used for the exercise of functions of these government departments and to meet statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009. It is also used to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a Personal Learning Record (PLR).

The information provided may be shared with other organisations for purposes of administration, the provision of career and other guidance and statistical and research purposes, relating to education, training, employment and well-being. This will only take place where the sharing is in compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

You may be contacted after you have completed your programme of learning to establish whether you have entered employment or gone onto further training or education.

You may be contacted by the English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority, or its agents, to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of the programme.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, and details of organisations with whom the data is regularly shared are available at: <http://www.gov.uk/government/publications/sfa-privacy-notice>

The legal basis for collecting the information

Most of the information on the form is collected because it is necessary for your enrolment as a learner or is required by law. You must provide it in order to enrol at the Hull Training and Adult Education.

The following information we are collecting based on your consent, and you may withdraw your consent without this affecting your status as a student: emergency contact details and parent/carer contact details.

Parents, carers and guardians

Under the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation), young people aged 16 and over can decide for themselves and give consent for the processing of their personal information. Parental consent is not required. There may be exceptions in regards of learners with severe learning difficulties, school link students and those who are otherwise unable to decide for themselves.

Hull Training and Adult Education has found that it is very beneficial to the young person's progress as a student if we are able to engage with the parents (or guardian/carer). Therefore it is very important that we have the parents' details recorded on our systems.

When a learner is in Further Education, parents/carers/guardians (or any other third party) are not automatically entitled to the student's information. We can only release information about our learners if we have their consent for this recorded on our system. Learners are asked for their consent for sharing information with parents/others on the enrolment form or when enrolling face-to-face. Learners can also inform us later on of who Hull Training and Adult Education may discuss with about their education/training matters. Learners may withdraw their consent the same way which they gave it.

In general, we can only share information if we have the person's consent, or there is a particular piece of legislation or agreement allowing us to share it without consent.

Participation in Learning: Sharing information with Local Authorities

This section applies to:

- 16 and 17 year olds
- Vulnerable 18 year olds ('vulnerable' is defined locally by individual Local Authorities)
- 18-25 year olds with an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP)

in the local authorities (LAs) of Hull, East Riding of Yorkshire, North Lincs and North East Lincs

The Education and Skills Act 2008 (the Act) places duties on LAs to promote the effective participation in education or training of all 16 and 17 year olds resident in their area, and to make arrangements to identify young people resident in their area who are not participating. It is part of the LA's duties to secure sufficient suitable education and training provision for all 16-19 year olds, and to encourage, enable and assist young people to participate in learning.

Under the Act, it is Hull Training and Adult Education's duty to provide relevant information about their learners to the LA of each learner's residence, when requested to do so, and notify local LAs when a young person leaves learning at Hull Training and Adult Education. All educational institutions are required to share information with LAs as part of their duty under the Act.

Section 72 of the Act provides the legal basis for sharing information between LAs and educational institutions. Link to relevant section is referenced here: www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2008/25/section/14

When you give us your information we will use your details to inform the LA where you live about the learning that you are participating in so that they are able to report monthly to the Department of Education and deliver their duties listed above.

Please note that some of the services for young people provided by the LA to fulfil their duties are provided by commissioned external contractors and organisations and they are required to use the same security standards as the LA.

If you wish to opt out of the sharing of your basic details for this purpose, or wish to see information held by Hull Training and Adult Education about you for this purpose, please contact learneradvice@hullcc.gov.uk or by writing to Hull Training and Adult Education The Avenues Adult Education Centre, Park Avenue, Hull, HU5 4DA
